heart in diamond

YOUR LIVING BOND

Family Diamonds
All hearts in one.

We don't always remember the days, we remember the moments

What shapes us as humans is our capacity for the unconditional love we have for members of our family, our friends and even our pets. Those magical and memorable moments spent together make up the rich tapestry of our lives. It is with this as the backdrop that we create beautiful and eternal diamonds that are highly prized and valued by so many. Your Heart In Diamond is that living bond to this true and precious love inherent in us all. A priceless connection to your loved ones that comes straight from the heart. This personal diamond is grown in a laboratory under strictly controlled conditions. To create your individual diamond we add particles of carbon extracted from the hair or ashes of your loved one to a diamond growing foundation. This grows into a unique diamond that is linked to your loved one at its very core.

Production Time
Your Heart In Diamond takes many stages of development before it becomes a personal diamond. We require 70-120 days from when we receive the hair or ashes samples to create and deliver the personal diamond to your doorsteps.

Certificate of Authenticity
A Certificate of Authenticity is issued with every personal diamond grown in our laboratory. The analytical data included into the certificate is presented by professional gemologists and complies with the International Diamond Grading Standards. The certificate will confirm the origin of your diamond and includes a full diamond grading report.

Creation Process. In order to create something as truly beautiful and heartfelt as your personal diamond, we employ only the best and most reliable practices for the process to culminate in perfection. We add a healthy dose of passion and commitment to creating each and every personal diamond that comes out of our lab.

Step 1
Upon its arrival at our laboratory, the hair or ashes sample* with a special identification number, issued at the moment of order placement, will be allocated to your case container. This ID number will allow you to trace the development stages of your personal diamond.

Step 2
After the sample analysis is completed, the carbon contained within will be extracted and added to the diamond growing foundation, out of which a unique crystalline matrix will grow, creating a personal diamond.

Step 3
The mixture is placed in the core of the HPHT (High Pressure High Temperature) machine. This unique and complex machinery will recreate diamond-growing conditions, similar to those deep in the Earth's crust where typical HPHT conditions are in excess of 2000°C and 60,000 atmospheres will be applied to grow your personal diamond.

Step 4
After the growth phase is completed our specialists will polish and cut your diamond in accordance to industry standards to accommodate your request.

*2 grams of hair or 100 grams of ashes are required for creation of your personal diamond.

We will never know the true value of a moment, until it becomes a memory

Clarity
Our team of professionals brings vast experience and knowledge in order to achieve the best possible result for the clarity of your Heart In Diamond. As a result, some slight inclusions not very noticeable to the naked eye are possible in your personal diamond.

Cut
Every personal diamond grown in our lab is cut and polished in accordance with the highest and most exacting standards in the diamond industry.
